REGISTRATION No. 616

Statement

During the period from March to August, 1950, the German Tourist Information Office distributed copies of 212 different pamphlets, brochures, posters, magazines, press releases, circulars, time tables, hotel guides and photographs to travel agents, transportation companies, news papers, trade papers and the general public. All this material, with the exception of the press releases and circulars, was prepared and printed in Germany. The press releases and circulars were prepared, printed and distributed by Stephen Goarl Associates, Advertising, 22 East 40 Street, New York, N.Y., which firm handles our publicity.

The sole purpose of all the material distributed was to promote and further travel to Germany and to acquaint the traveler with transportation facilities and general conditions in Germany.

None of the material contained any political view-points or was intended to influence the recipient in any political direction.
